

Internal Training

Conduct periodic training sessions for teachers and other departmental staffs.

In order to unify and enhance the content of lectures, the teaching methods of foreign language training and improve the foreign language capability of Vietnamese staff and teachers, our company organizes periodic training sessions for teachers and staff from other departments. Conducting mock teaching sessions for teachers to point out mistakes; commenting and sharing ideas; reducing the disparity or in teaching quality among teachers; this enhances the quality of training of the entire teaching staff.

Training on human rights and labor protection.

Training on the prevention of forced labor, child labor, human trafficking, and discrimination for employees of Mirai International Joint Stock Company.

The "Empowered women" training program.

The "Empowered women" training program for female employees in the company not only helps develop skills for women but also contributes to creating a positive and equitable work culture within the company.

Training Course on Environmental Protection

Organize training courses on environmental protection for employees, focusing on the impact of carbon emissions and ways to mitigate them. Organize competitive activities to promote environmental protection and enhance individual awareness.

